Firm Hires Tim Hotchandani to Lead Life Science Technology Banking Effort

BOSTON, MA – MAY 9, 2024 – Leerink Partners, a leading investment bank specializing in healthcare, today announced the opening of a new office in Los Angeles to cement its growing business in the region. This new location follows the recently opened Miami office in December 2023.

To lead the firm's strategic expansion in Los Angeles, Leerink Partners also announced the addition of Tim Hotchandani as Senior Managing Director. Mr. Hotchandani brings 20 years of experience in healthcare investment banking, during which he has specialized in life science tools & diagnostics for the last decade and a half. He is based in the firm's new office and will report to Barry Blake, Global Co-Head of Investment Banking.

"As the life sciences and healthcare market continues to grow in Southern California as a key hub of innovation, Tim's wealth of experience and deep insights into the tools and diagnostics sector position him well to make significant contributions to our clients' growth and success," said Mr. Blake. "We are thrilled to welcome Tim to our growing team."

Prior to joining Leerink Partners, Mr. Hotchandani served as a Managing Director at Rothschild & Co, specializing in the coverage of Life Science Technology companies globally. Previously, he was a Managing Director at Deutsche Bank and began his career as an investment banking analyst at Lehman Brothers and Thomas Weisel Partners LLC.

"I am honored to join Leerink Partners and to lead the charge in our Life Science Technology banking initiative," affirmed Mr. Hotchandani. "I eagerly anticipate leveraging my expertise and network to drive optimal outcomes for our clients, while collaboratively contributing to the esprit de corps and continued success of the firm."

Los Angeles marks Leerink Partners' eighth location, complementing its established presence in Boston, New York, San Francisco, Charlotte, Chicago, Miami, and Nashville.
